

Company [location] Website	Kashrut/ Kosher	Tzedakah/ Charitable	Ba'al Tashhit/ Green	Oshek/ Worker Justice	Quality	Misc Notes
Al Nassma [Dubai] http://www.al-nassma.com	Not Kosher: camel milk. Not Halal				Local food	Uses camel milk and acacia honey.
Alter Eco Chocolats Halba [Switzerland] http://www.altereco-usa.com/main.php?section=products&amp;subsection=main	No			Fair Trade certified	Organic, 100% natural, contains no emulsifiers or artificial additives; organic cane sugar. Options include with toasted quinoa, mint or orange peel.	Also sells other Fair Trade products such as sugar rice and quinoa. In 2003, France's #1 Fair Trade brand.
Askinosie Chocolate [Springfield, MO] http://www.askinosie.com	No	Chocolate University teaching local children about social entrepreneurship, direct trade and sustainability; runs projects building Africa wells; 100% of proceeds from chocolate tours support Chocolate U.	Green packaging and construction; cocoa shells for mulch; reuse cacao bean bag strings in chocolate wrapping	Direct contact; "Stake in Outcome" 100% profits	"Unofficially Organic." Single Origin Chocolate from Philippines, Mexico, Guatemala, Honduras and Ecuador.	Business books are seen by farmers; better than Fair Trade, direct contact.  Use the online "Choc-olot" system to trace the story of your bar.
Bartons Candy [Allentown, PA] http://www.bartonscandy.com/index.php	Some products are certified Kosher Dairy & some are identified as Pareve; Kosher for Passover					See Ms. Chocolate http://www.ms-chocolate.com for Pesach fundraising of Bartons' Kosher for Passover line.
Blommer [Chicago, IL] http://www.blommer.com	No		A line of Rainforest Alliance certified products	Supports and partners with Cocoa Livelihoods Program, World Cocoa Foundation, Côte d'Ivoire Alliance of Farmers, Olam International and Blommer Chocolate (CIFOB), Sulawesi Alliance of Farmers, (SAFOB), Processors Alliance for Cocoa Traceability and Sustainability (PACTS)	line of organic	Four generation family owned; North America's largest cocoa bean processor & chocolate manufacturer.
Chocolats Latour [Cincinnati, OH] http://chocolatslatour.com	No		Uses boxes made of recycled craft paper; cellophane bags are compostable.	Using fairly traded chocolate from Equal Exchange El Rey from Venezuela is very important to Chocolats Latour. Uses as many local ingredients as possible. No certification		Makes the chocolate in her Cincinnati home kitchen.

Cadbury [Birmingham, England] http://www.cadbury.com	No	Corporate social responsibility: 1.Cocoa sourcing 2.Environment 3.Cadbury Foundation in the local community 4.Donates books - Ghana, bicycles.		Dairy Milk line is Fair Trade		Owned by Kraft. In turn, Cadbury owns Green &amp; Black's which is Fair Trade and organic.
Callebaut [Belgium] http://www.callebaut.com	Some Kosher options			Educational project include child labor; schooling	Bulks, signed onto Harkin-Engle Cocoa Protocol, 2005; "interested in fair trade, in organic, in making sure no child labor was used"	World's largest cocoa &amp; chocolate manufacturer, produces couverture for manufacturers and consumers.
Camille Bloch [Courtelary, Switzerland] http://www.camillebloch.ch/en	Under the Rabbinic supervision of Rabbi Westheim; produces Kosher for Passover					3rd generation Jewish family ownership.
Dagoba [Oregon] http://www.dagobachocolate.com	K	Seed the Day- SF, Seattle and green space, donates chocolate to non-profits &amp; supporters of green space	Restoration and reforestation in Costa Rica/ building plant nurseries, recycled packaging. Purchases green power to offset manufacturing plants.	"Full Circle Sustainability" Fair Trade/ some products, Dominican Republic, Madagascar, Latin America	small batch organic
Divine [United Kingdom] http://www.divinechocolate.com/	K some are Triangle-K-D certified			Fair Trade - 45% owned by farmer coop called Kuapa Kokoo in Ghana	Not organic; Dairy in some products; butter; sourced from Ghana	Make Fair Trade Kosher Chanukkah gelt.
Elite/Max Brenner [Israel] http://www.elite.com	website has nothing about Kashrut			Probably bulked.	Owned by Straus- Elite
El Ciebo [La Paz, Bolivia] http://www.elciebo.org/ceibo/en/index.php	No			Grown by the farmers of El Ceibo farmer cooperative in Alto Beni. 90% of the whole production of the 1200 families is fermented and dried by the producers.	Organic; all beans from Bolivia	Developed in consultation with Chloé Doutre-Roussel.
Endangered Species [Indianapolis, IN] http://chocolatebar.com	Kosher certified by OU.	Endangered Species Chocolate Foundation (ESCF) 1.Donates 10% of net profits to support species, habitat conservation 2.Project Ecuador - environment; women &amp; families enhances the economy 3.Donates to non-profits 4.Endangered Species Chocolate Foundation	Rainforest Alliance Certified™; very high concern for green practices including packaging, shipping and processing. Forest Stewardship Council, SeeTheWild, African Wildlife Foundation, Project Ecuador	Very high concern for worker's rights. "Ethically Traded," supports farmers and forests. No slave labor	Organic single origin from Sacha, Ecuador.

Equal Exchange [West Bridgewater, MA] http://www.equalexchange.coop/chocolate-bars	Kosher <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Drinking chocolates certified by Kashrut Council of Canada</li> <li>• Bars are certified by Rabbi Abraham Hochwald, Chief Rabbi of the Northern Rhine - Germany</li> </ul>			Is worker owned. Certified Fair Trade; from small scale Dominican Republic, Peru, Panama.	Certified organic Swiss process in Switzerland.	Swiss standards;no additives such as emulsifiers or corn syrup.
Gnosis Chocolate [Brooklyn, NY] http://www.gnosischocolate.com/	Kosher; International Kosher Council	Donates 10% of profits to replant trees.	Certified FSC Forest Stewardship Council packaging.		Certified organic; beans from Bali, Ecuador, Peru. Certified Raw	Certified Raw
Godiva http://www.godiva.com	OU dairy			Bulked, no fair trade	Not organic	Recipes in Belgium and the US differ.
Green and Black's http://www.greenandblacks.com/us	No			Maya Gold line is 100% Fair Trade certified.	Organically grown cocoa beans, certified by the California Certified Organic Farmers (CCOF). Beans from Belize &amp; Dominican Republic.	Owned by Cadbury &amp; Kraft.
Hawaiian Vintage [Hawaii] http://www.hawaiianchocolate.com	No				Not organic; local beans.	1st new variety of cocoa in 80 years: Hawaiian.
Hershey [Hershey, PA] http://www.hersheys.com/	OU/OU Dairy, some			BULK/no Fair Trade	Not organic	Also owns Dagoba and Scharffen-Berger.
Kallari [Equador] http://www.kallarichocolate.com	No		Rainforest Alliance certified	Farmer coop 100% profit.	Organic; local bean, Cacao Nacional, from Kichwa farms
Malie Kai [Oahu, HI] http://www.maliekai.com	No				Single origin/ small batch, lecithin. Local beans from Oahu.
Newman's Own Organics http://www.newmansownorganics.com/index.php	Kosher certification by OU		Rainforest Alliance certified		Certified organic by Oregon Tilth	Family owned
Original Bean http://www.originalbeans.com	No	Plants trees	Restores forests; Chocolate &amp; Conservation; Use lot #s to track your tree — for each bar purchased a tree is planted in the rainforest
Omanhene [Milwaukee, WI] http://www.omanhene.com	No			Factory workers and farmers have a stake in the company.	Single sourced from and processed in Ghana	The name Omanhene in the Twi language, means the "Paramount Chief".
Plantations Arriba			First Rainforest Certified	Beans from Ecuador

Rescue Chocolate [Brooklyn, NY] http://www.rescuechocolate.com	Parve, OK certification via Tumbador; some is Kosher for Passover	Don't Passover Me matzah texture; 100% net profits donated to animal rescue organizations.		Chocolate from Ghana/ Callebaut	small batch - Brooklyn	Belgian tradition
Seeds of Change [New Mexico] http://seedsofchangechocolate.com	OU Kosher-Diary	Donates 1% of its net sales to promote sustainable organic farming initiatives worldwide.	Recycled packaging, Sustainable forest initiative; promotes biodiversity.	Beans from Bolivia & Brazil	Certified organic by Oregon Tilth, no GMO's	Owned by Mars.
Shaman [Santa Cruz, CA] http://www.shamanchocolates.com	No	Supports Huichol Indians		Fair Trade certified	Organic certified	Huichol practice pagan customs.
Taza [Somerville, MA] http://www.tazachocolate.com	OU Parve		Recycle and green - Pedal Paver deliveries; UPS carbon-neutral program	"Direct Trade"	Small batch; beans from Latin America and Caribbean	Enter batch # to see how chocolate is made; Meso-American tradition of chocolate grinding; 100% stone ground.
Terra Nostra [Vancouver, BC, Canada] http://www.terranostrachocolate.com/	KD certified Kosher			Member of "Equitable Trade" or "Equi-Trade"	Organic
Theo [Seattle, WA] http://www.theochocolate.com	Kosher		Use green energy to power factory, sustainable packaging and printing methods; education during tours about social and environmental accountability	Fair Trade, living wage and education for families of growers	Small batch organic	Claims to be the only Fair Trade, organic bean to bar factory in the States.
Valrhona [Tain L'Hermitage, France] http://www.valrhona.com/us#/accueil	Kosher (some lines)			Works on reducing waste.	Some organic; some single origin options from places such as Manjari, Guanaja and Honduras
Vintage Plantations [Ecuador] http://www.vintageplantations.com/	No		Follows guidelines of Rainforest Certification; sun dried beans	Direct contact with farmers.	Single origin; small batch
Zotter [Austria] http://www.zotter.at/en/home.html	No			Austrian Fair Trade certified (NIC and Brazil)	Organic	White chocolate was labeled as chocolate.