RABBI DEBORAH PRINZ

Join us for a fabulous weekend of learning:

Friday, May 13 at 7:30 PM – During the special Chocolate Oneg, following Shabbat Services, Rabbi Deborah Prinz will discuss, “Jews on the Chocolate Trail”. Rabbi Prinz will explore with us the surprising Jewish historical connections to chocolate in this gastronomic adventure and overview.

Saturday, May 14 at 9 AM – Rabbi Prinz will lead Torah Study and discuss “Questions Rabbis Ask About Chocolate: Text Study of Responsa”. Join us as we explore what our ancient texts reveal about the laws regarding chocolate and the values that they teach us that are relevant to our modern lives. We will have chocolate chip bagels and chocolate schmear to sweeten our text study!

Saturday, May 14 at 7:30 PM - Havdalah and Dessert. Rabbi Prinz will regale us with stories of Jewish culture, history and ethics through the lens of chocolate. Come hear how chocolate permeates Israel’s history and how chocolate provided immigrants and refugees with succor and support and contributed to their survival and renewed strength. Please bring your favorite chocolate dessert and the recipe. We plan to put together a recipe book for all participants.

Sunday, May 15 at 9:30 AM – Join us for a fabulous discussion of “What is the Best Chocolate? Jewish Ethics Mix into our Chocolate Eating”. We will explore the complexities that surface when measuring our food values against our chocolate choices and consumption.

Please RSVP to Cindy Poust at 610 337-2222 or e-mail, cpoust@brithachim.org. When you call, please let her know what dessert you will bring and send her a copy of the recipe. We will assemble a special commemorative recipe to commemorate this special weekend of learning!
